

Local Matters.

Thursday Morning, 1: April 28, 1859.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the First Baptist Church to-night at 8 o'clock.

Love in a Cottage.—We shall publish "Love in a Cottage" in a day or two, it is a splendid story.

Mr. MARY CARMAN.—There will be divine service in this church on Sunday next, at 10 a.m. The Rev. Dr. Page will preach.

May of Memphis.—Kirk &amp; Williams have a number of Kirk's maps on hand in this city last evening. It is his intention to make Memphis his permanent place of residence.

Roxanne's Court.—The Roxanne's daughter of thirteen was buried yesterday morning at the age of 100 years, $200, 200 of which were paid. There were five charges of apparel, and nine additional were made to the shade.

Cave of the Dead.—Kirk &amp; Williams.

Cave of the Dead.—Kirk &amp; Williams.

Hebrew Literary Society.—This Society was addressed last night by the Rev. Jacob J. Perez, at their Hall in this city. The meeting was opened with a hymn, followed by "Taste and Experiment among the Heretics," which he discussed, we learn, in a novel, interesting and instructive manner.

Gone.—E. W. Rucker, our former excellent City Engineer, left this city yesterday evening for New Orleans, where he is located. The citizens of that place will find him a true gentleman and well skilled in his profession. We have a suspicion that our friend has a "weakness" for one of Kentucky's fair daughters. He is a man of great ability, and the State to whom he is bound, will be greatly grieved.

Moses.—M. C. Hayes &amp; Son desire to call the attention of the public to the sale of Dr. Englund's Division, to be sold to-day at 10 o'clock. Surely such choice lots as it is there to be purchased, offers great inducements for many to buy. We hope that every man of good policy will secure them.

Gone.—W. H. Black, of New Orleans, will leave their stores from half past 9 until 12 o'clock.

Eye.—Dr. Van Esch.—It will be referred to Dr. Van Esch's care, that he has prolonged his stay. We pass over further remarks as regards his removal, as he has gained much and earned a high and eminent reputation to warrant that the prolongation of his stay will be good news to all those who have delayed consulting him, and may need his services after restoration of sight as well as health.

Some Extravagance.—We have had a communication from Mrs. H. Black, the popular and accomplished teacher of the female music school, that to-morrow night her pupils will give an entertainment at Old Fellow's Hall. No effort has been spared to make it worthy of the public approbation. Tickets can be had at the bookstores of Strange &amp; Co., and of Kirk &amp; Williams.

A Train of Convicts.—Messrs. F. F. Fletcher and E. B. Hobins arrived in this city yesterday, and deposited upon land passing by the steamer New Orleans, who were en route to New Orleans, for the gaolitry of Jackson, Mississ. Sippi, via James Stamps, from Tishomingo county, convicted of homicide, Wm. Easley, convicted of stealing, and J. J. James, as well as others.

J. Jones, convicted of the treachery of a mate from Tishomingo county. The last named individual will be remembered by old citizens of Memphis as a constable under this city, having his business here only about four years back.

James Jones or Fiveshells.—This amiable youth, whose family name is Stephen Massell, and who is well known particularly in the readers of Knickerbocker, left Vicksburg yesterday for this city, where he will remain. He has opened a theater in our Theater in a great variety of opposite scenes, and have respectively won high commendation from the best judges of the dramatic in our midst. The peculiar feature of his representation of tragic artes is the representation of almost every scene piece, which, unlike ours, "written expressly" for stars now days, possess a solid literary merit, as well as a high degree of dramatic effect. Mrs. Starkey has improved during the past year, and has given us a highly finished and elegant actress. She is all things the lady—especially and thoroughly—and the grace of her action, joined to her very striking person, adds much to the pleasure to be derived from her performances. Her late Sister is a woman of great beauty, and her voice is well known to us all. The young actress, bound for Princeton, was to have a short distance on her way. She was one of the most attractive girls in our city, and, I suppose, the most popular.
